

ACRM 2022 Annual Conference Presenter Agreement for Submission

All presenters and moderators named in proposals accepted for presentation at the ACRM 2022 Annual Conference will be asked to meet the following requirements. This helps ACRM confirm the participation of each presenter and moderator and allocate appropriate support. It also ensures the accurate representation of presenters and moderators, their work, and their professional affiliation in ACRM promotional materials and the online program.

Please carefully review the following requirements and check the corresponding box to indicate agreement to complete each one.

- i. Registration requirements are as follows:
 1. All Pre-Conference Presenters and Moderators (presenters and moderators of Instructional Courses, Leadership Development Course, Early Career Development Course, Cognitive Rehabilitation Training and/or ACBIS Training) must register for their own course. This registration will be complimentary.
 - a. Pre-Conference presenters and moderators may apply Early Bird discounts and the Presenter 20% Discount Code if they wish to attend additional Pre-Conference courses or the Core Conference.
 2. All CORE Conference Presenters and Moderators (presenters and moderators of symposia, posters, papers) must register for at least a 1-day CORE Conference registration for the day of their presentation. Early Bird and Presenter 20% discounts apply. See Rates at <https://acrm.org/rates>
- ii. Register for the conference by 30 June 2022.
- iii. Utilize the ACRM Presenter Portal to confirm presenter or moderator profile details, including a current biography, CV and photo by the deadline dates (to be provided).
- iv. Utilize the ACRM Presenter Portal to confirm presentation details, upload presentation slides and pre-recording and provide any requested information required for Continuing Education compliance by the deadline dates (to be provided).
- v. Agree to ACRM's Permission to Record Agreement (insert link to document here)
